

Biography

Michael Stumo,

Michael Stumo is the Chief Executive Officer of the Coalition for a Prosperous America (CPA). CPA is a national bipartisan trade association representing domestic manufacturing and agricultural producers. CPA works for policies to balance U.S. trade, re-shore American industry, protect national security, create jobs and achieve broadly shared prosperity. Michael was previously a lawyer and litigator at Brignole, Bush and Lewis (Hartford CT) and Domina Law (Omaha NE). He was general counsel for the Organization for Competitive Markets focusing upon national agriculture and antitrust policy. Michael holds a B.S. from Iowa State University in Agricultural Studies and a law degree from the University of Iowa. He lives on a farm in southwest Massachusetts with his wife, Nadia, where they raised their children

